'The Fables Project' is the new album from one of the UK's most creative rock/alternative female artists Kitayah. The album fuses organic rock in groundbreaking pop production with raw thought provoking lyrics and features fresh UK rap artist Remi Prince and pioneering drummer Andy Gangadeen touring with Chase and Status. 'The Fables Project' is produced by Grammy Producer/Arranger Ian Prince (Hiltone Music Production) and recorded at legendary US soundtrack artist John Parr's recording studios 'somewhereinyorkshire.

In 2010 Kitayah toured London UK music venues/festivals in association with independent UK label Criminal Records and supported Orbital and Australia's Bertie Blackman (Awarded 'Best Breakthrough Act at the Australian Independent Awards – AIR Awards). In the summer of 2010 Kitayah performed at Guilfest in a line up with N-Dubz, Status Quo and The Human League and played the acoustic lounge tour at 'The Living Room' (www.thelivingroom.co.uk)

'Halo' was the first single from 'The Fables Project', released 30.05.11. Following the recent summer promo tour to Los Angeles in the USA, Kitayah has returned to the UK and is currently in production filming for the new release 'Run To The Sun' to be released in the Autumn.
